Dear Dr Laura Janes

Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) Request – 230607016

Thank you for your request dated 07 June 2023 in which you asked for the following information from the Ministry of Justice (MoJ):

1. The number of applications to the secretary of state for pre-tariff sifts before the parole reviews each month since June 2021 and, for each month, the outcome of each of those applications

Your request has been handled under the FOIA.

I can confirm that the MoJ holds the information that you have requested and I have provided this in the table below:

We have introduced a set of landmark reforms designed to restore public confidence in the parole system, including a tougher Parole Board release test to ensure prisoners who still pose a risk are kept behind bars and a new power for the Justice Secretary to block the release of the most dangerous offenders in the interests of public safety.

Appeal Rights

If you are not satisfied with this response you have the right to request an internal review by responding in writing to one of the addresses below within two months of the date of this response.
